A photograph of a modern bathroom vanity. On the left, a tall grey cabinet with four round copper knobs is partially visible. The main vanity unit is white with a marble countertop. It features a copper faucet, a round mirror with a copper frame, and two cylindrical wall sconces. The backsplash is made of white marble tiles in a herringbone pattern. On the counter, there are white hydrangeas in a glass vase, a wooden soap dish with a brush, and a small wooden container. The vanity has multiple drawers and cabinets, all with copper hardware. The floor is made of grey wood-look planks.
